Foiled Logo Chocolates

Creating a foiled logo chocolate

In liaison with our chocolate mould creator, we can create personalised chocolates with your company logo on top. Your moulds are created to meet your size and shape specifications. Please note that small and intricate designs do not always produce a clear finished product, however, we can help you to choose the right option for your mould. Your logo chocolates are made with high quality gourmet milk or dark chocolate. Then we then foil your chocolates in one of the of foil colours available.

How much does this type of service cost?

The moulds are created for a one time set up cost of approximately $450.00 excl. GST. The moulds remain the property of your company and in most cases are stored with us for future chocolate orders. Prices for a business-card size piece of chocolate start from approximately $2.00 excl. GST and freight per piece.

How long will it take to produce foiled logo chocolates?

From past experience, we recommend you allocate at least one month from the date we order your moulds to the date you require the completed chocolates.

Printed Logo Chocolates

Creating a printed logo chocolate

Using specially designed computer software, we create a template for what you would like on your chocolate. Once the template has been created, it is printed with edible ink on to chocolate transfer sheets. The transfer sheets are then applied to the top of the chocolate shape you have selected. We currently offer printed logo chocolates in solid gourmet milk, dark or white chocolate. Available shapes include a rectangle, square and star.
